

March 2010

Improved efficiency for SODEC

Following the conversion of data from old systems and adjusting certain functionalities, SODEC begins production with LMS – Wealth Management. The SODEC is a governmental organization that manages the financial aspects of cultural businesses in Canada. The organization grants and guarantees loans to hundreds of businesses in the field of arts located within its territory.

With LMS, all of their loan and loan guarantee files are integrated into one single system, which allows for a significant improvement in efficiency.